

Activity Sheet 30

Using situation and problem analysis to improve rural transport services

Case Study # 1

Purpose

The purpose of this activity is to explore the ways in which carrying out a country level analysis using situation analysis, problem analysis and drawing up recommendations – may enable improved solutions to rural transport services to be identified.

Group Activity

1. Working groups of 3 or 4 Refer discuss the following:

In what ways does carrying out a situation analysis and problem analysis contribute to developing solutions for rural transport services?

2. Prepare your notes on flip chart.
3. Elect a person to present your findings to the plenary.