

Activity Sheet 40

Contractual procedures for social aims

Purpose

This activity examines the benefits and advantages for various stakeholders of contractual procedures that are focussed specifically on social objectives, such as employment.

Group Work

1. For this activity each group of participants will only work on ONE stakeholder group. The stakeholder groups are:
 -  Employers/contractors
 -  Workers (disaggregated by gender)
 -  Governments and donors
 -  Labour Ministry and social partners (employers and workers' organisations)
2. For the stakeholder group you are working with, discuss the following question:

What are the advantages to various stakeholders/actors of a contractual system that is targeted towards social objectives?
3. Prepare your findings on flipchart.
4. Elect a person from your group to present your findings to the plenary.
