

Activity Sheet 46

WURMCBP Giving a technical project a “human face”

Purpose

The purpose of this activity is to reflect on the experiences of the West Ugandan project, and consider what lessons may be applied to other regions or projects.

Participants may also draw on their own experiences to provide suggestions and recommendations for improving the community participation components of the project.

Group Work

1. Read the case study sheet provided by your facilitator.
2. In your groups discuss the following:
 - A. What key lessons can we draw from this case study to apply to other countries and projects?
 - B. What recommendations would you make for improving the community participation component of this project?
3. Prepare your findings on flipchart.
4. Elect a person to present the findings.
