

Activity Sheet 58

Comparative advantages of communities and government

Purpose

The following activity examines the comparative advantages of communities, and local and central government for the financing Rural Transport Infrastructure (RTI).

Group Work

1. Discuss the following questions:
 1. What sorts of resources and attributes do communities, local governments, and central governments bring to the financing of RTI?
 2. What are the comparative advantages of each of these levels?
2. Prepare your findings on flip chart and elect a person to present the findings.