

WOMEN and TRANSPORT – WORKPLAN 2006

Women, transport and poverty Reduction
Action	Actors	How	Results	When/Where	Cost ($)
Inclusion of women related transport issues in ongoing transport projects.	SSAPT, REFATE, Leaders of women associations/ NGO	Survey of ongoing transport projects to assess the inclusion of women related issues in the, preparation, design and implementation of projects	Establishment of data documenting the inclusion of women related issues in ongoing transport projects. Establishment of analytical baseline data to be used in the preparation, design and implementation of transport projects to the benefits of women	In 11 countries that have completed the transport and poverty strategy and review process (PRTSR) February – June 06	140.000
Indicators Performance Indicators
Data and methodology definition	Tanzania, Niger, RDC, Mali, Cameroon, Guinea, Zambia, Uganda, Congo, Côte d'Ivoire	Document with definition of data/methodology drafted by Arnaud; synthesis of comments by working group	Synthesis report	Washington DC. January -Mars 06	Local Costs
					1

Regional Integration and Transport
Actions	Actors	How	Results	Where/when	Cost ($)
Assessment of conventions and other legal texts governing regional integration and trade	SSAPT, REFATE, Leaders of women traders associations/ NGO	Regional workshops.	Knowledge of conventions and other legal texts governing regional integration and trade	Burkina Faso (Francophone)	60.000
		Training of REFATE members in the conventions and other legal texts governing regional integration and trade	Drafts kits of trade and travel document lists and training material for national workshops;	Tanzania (Anglophone) February 06	50.000
		Training of leaders of women traders' associations working along the corridors.		National workshops April - June 06	60.000
Road Safety
Capacity building in road safety	REFATE	Identification of women stakeholders in road safety	Women stakeholders in road safety identified	April – October 06	Local

The Way Forward – The Long Term Development Plan

- To be an active stakeholder in the development of future infrastructure in Africa
- Creation of a gender thematic group in SSATP
- Establishment and launching of a women and transport network
- Incorporation of gender related data and specific indicators in collection and management of transport data and indicators.
- Representation of women in SAATP board; Steering Committees and Stakeholders groups meetings of PRTSR.