

Activity Sheet 57

Social impact of rural transport

Purpose

The purpose of this activity is to explore the social impact of transport interventions on various socio-economic groups in the community. Explore related transport issues that may occur at micro (village), meso (district) and macro (national) levels.

Group Work

1. Discuss the following question:

What is the social impact of rural transport?

2. Prepare your findings on flip chart.
3. Elect a person to present the group's findings.
